

Children's Mini Print Workshop

Inkless Intaglio on the Mini Hardwood Press

By Melissa Strawser

Children, bring your creativity to this fun Mini Print Workshop with me. We will be learning how to make a traditional print by using a non-toxic printmaking technique called "Inkless Intaglio." Together, we will explore ways to draw out our ideas in reverse onto plastic; we will handle soft materials and use many colors. Each of you will make a Print on nice Printmaking paper to take home with you.

Workshop offered Saturday,
